

Ross Taylor, SCM Legal

- I am British and have lived and worked in Myanmar for 5 years and have a total of 20 years' experience in South East Asia. I have seen Myanmar in the heady days of 2013-2014; and the more challenging recent times.
- I have regularly attended the Legal Working Group meetings since its inception.
- I would like to see the Legal Working Group recognized as one of the foremost legal commentators in Myanmar.
- I am committed to the success of the Myanmar economy and country in general.
- I have practiced law in the UK and Myanmar (and Thailand), so have broad legal experience.
- I have major international and Myanmar clients, so have a good idea of what both foreign and Myanmar investors want.
- Finally, I would like meetings of the Legal Working Group to move swiftly through the agenda towards drinks!

Stanley Kyaw Khaing, Edotco Group

Stanley is a Canadian qualified Barrister and Solicitor working in an inhouse role in Yangon. Prior to moving back to Yangon in 2013, Stanley was in private practice in Canada. Stanley has actively participated in the Legal Working Group at the British Chamber since his return and hopes that the LWG will continue to be an open forum for legal professionals in Myanmar to discuss and contribute to the development of the legal landscape in Myanmar.